ST. CHARLES BORROMEO

1885 — 1910

Brief Chronicle of St. Charles Parish.

THE HISTORY OF ST. CHARLES PARISH is similar in its general outlines to most of the city parishes. A number of families reclaimed the prairie, and, desiring the comforts of religion and the benefits of a Catholic school, petitioned for a pastor of their own. At first the number of families was small — about two hundred — and many sacrifices were made, but faith and generosity conquered.

The present parish of St. Charles Borromeo was formed by joining portions of St. Pius' and St. Jarlath's parishes. All south of Twelfth Street formerly belonged to St. Pius', and all north to St. Jarlath's. It is bounded on the north by Polk Street, from Rockwell Street to Lincoln Street, and from Lincoln Street to Ashland Avenue by Taylor Street; on the east by Ashland Avenue from Taylor Street to Fourteenth Street; on the south from Ashland Avenue to Western Avenue by Fourteenth Street, and from Western Avenue to Rockwell Street by Sixteenth Street; on the west by the railroad tracks.

Rev. F. S. Henneberry, the pastor of St. Pius', worked most earnestly for the establishment of the new parish, and personally requested Archbishop Feehan to listen to the appeal of the petitioners for a pastor. The fall previous to the establishing of the parish Father Henneberry sent teachers from St. Pius', and they conducted what was termed the Branch School, which was situated on Hastings Street, No. 335, and in the property owned by Mr. J. Ryan.

In August, 1885, Archbishop Feehan appointed Rev. P. D. Gill as pastor of the newly formed parish, and he selected St. Charles Borromeo as the patron. Father Gill entered upon his work trusting entirely to the faith and good-will of the people of his new charge, and he was not disappointed.

When Father Gill arrived, there was no church, no land, no house, no place for service. For some months he accepted the hospitality of Father Henneberry, and held services in what was good-naturedly named "Ryan's Cathedral." Masses were said at 8 and 10:30 a. m. As soon as possible plans for the building which was to serve as church and school were prepared by Architect J. Egan. This building was finished in December, 1885. The lower floor was used for church purposes for ten years, and the second story for school purposes, and as living rooms for the Sisters.

This building was dedicated on the fourth Sunday of Advent, 1885, by Archbishop Feehan. The Mass was celebrated by Vicar-General Conway, assisted by Rev. F. S. Henneberry as deacon and Rev. P. J. Agnew as subdeacon. The sermon was preached by the Archbishop, who complimented pastor and people on the rapid progress. The pastor rented a small dwelling at 78 Cypress Street as rectory and lived therein for seven years. A successful bazaar was held December 4-18, 1885, in the upper floor of the new building. This second floor was subdivided into school rooms and living rooms during the spring of 1886. In September, school opened in the new rooms with one hundred and twenty children. The school was under the supervision of Sister Mary Florentina, of the Sisters of Charity of B. V. M. During the month of November, 1886, a second parish bazaar was held in the factory on Olive Street, facing Ashland Street. In April, 1886, Rev. N. J. Hitchcock, now pastor of St. Agnes Church, Brighton, came to assist in the parish work. He remained until September of 1886, when he was succeeded by Rev. Lawrence J. Cunningham, who labored earnestly and successfully until April, 1894. May those who today enjoy the benefits of his labor's kindly say a prayer for the repose of his soul! During the winter of 1886 Father Gill went abroad for some months and during his absence Rev. Thos. J. Kearney, now pastor of St. Patrick's parish, Hartland, Ill., assisted Father Cunningham. The years 1887 and 1888 were very busy ones in the parish. The task of paying for work done was a heavy one. Little by little families came within the parish limits and helped through subscriptions and entertainments to pay for land and buildings.

June 20th, the children made their first Holy Communion at High Mass at 8 o'clock.

On July 3d, a parish picnic was held at Central Grove.

On November 3d, the Most Rev. P. A. Feehan, D. D., administered Confirmation at 3 p. m.

November 10th, a conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society was established.

On November 19th, an entertainment for the benefit of the parish, especially to meet the large expense entailed by the improvements of the streets surrounding the church, was held in Apollo Hall, Blue Island Avenue.

1890.

In the month of July, a parish picnic at Central Grove.

July 20th, Bishop Moore of St. Augustine, Fla., made a collection for the benefit of his diocese.

School was reopened on September 2d.

September 29th, a lecture and sacred concert for the benefit of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

October 29th, Archbishop Feehan administered Confirmation and a parade of the societies met him at the confines of the parish.

1891.

On March 29th, a special collection was taken up, and $1,300 was added to the treasury.

August 9th, a parish picnic.

December 9th, an entertainment in Apollo Hall for the poor of the parish, under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

1892.

The growth of the parish necessitated another laborer, and Rev. J. J. Jennings was appointed February 14, and he continued in the parish until May, 1898.

On June 1st a drawing for a piano realized $800.

June 12th, the ladies of the parish collected $1,200 to assist in defraying the expense of furnishing the new parochial residence.

A census of the parish was taken this year.

October 16th, Archbishop Feehan administered Confirmation and a parade of the societies made welcome his coming.

November 22d, a dramatic entertainment was given in Apollo Hall.

1893.

On July 16th the new parish west of Rockwell Street was announced.

This parish is known as St. Agatha's.

Up to this date St. Charles' extended west to California Avenue.

October 30th, Archbishop Feehan gave Confirmation.

1894.

February 25th, Rev. P. J. Agnew delivered a lecture for the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

During the fall months a census of the parish was taken.

September 26th, the children were confirmed by Archbishop Feehan.

November 18th, the Debt Paying Association was formed, and Mr. J. C. King was elected president. The men of the parish volunteered to make the weekly collections, and about $5,000 was realized through the efforts of this society.

July 1, 1894, Rev. W. L. Kearney came into the parish as assistant, immediately after his ordination.

October 25th, Archbishop Feehan transferred Rev. P. D. Gill to Mt. Carmel parish, which was vacated through the death of Rev. P. O'Brien.

Rev. P. J. Muldoon, Chancellor of the Archdiocese, was given charge of St. Charles'.

On the evening of the second Sunday of November, the congregation assembled in the church, and kindly words of God-speed and gratitude were addressed to the departing pastor in the name of the congregation, by Mr. George T. Trumbull, and words of welcome and promises of loyalty addressed to the new incumbent by Mr. J. C. King.

On December 8th a retreat for the young ladies of the parish closed, and the sermon was delivered by Father (now Bishop) A. J. McGavick.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and under the auspices of St. Cecilia, was established, with two hundred and ninety-two members. The first president was Miss Mary Brady, who at present is serving the same Mother in the community of the Sisters of Providence. December 22d, the Sodality known as the Children of Mary, and comprised of those girls who had made their first Holy Communion, and who were under eighteen years of age, was established.

On December 29th, it was announced, on account of the increased attendance, that six masses would be said each Sunday.

A meeting of all the men of the parish was called to discuss the advisability of building a new church. About two hundred and fifty attended the meeting and a lengthy discussion ensued. Some favored building a convent for the Sisters, but the majority voted for a new church and agreed that a popular subscription should be made. The meeting was adjourned till January 14th, when the men subscribed, giving their notes for various amounts ranging from $10 to $300 and payable within a year. About $9,000 was collected in this manner. It was decided for economical reasons to erect a basement and part of the superstructure, as all feared a complete church would be too great a burden. The first cash donation for the new building was given on the evening of January 14th, by Mr. Thos. Keane of 749 Fourteenth Street. We hope that his soul is now enjoying his Maker.

Mr. Martin Carr was selected as the architect and it was decided to use Ashland brown stone in the building.

January 28th, a meeting was called in the basement of the school building for the formation of a Young Men's Sodality.

January 29th, at Netherwood Hall, a very enthusiastic entertainment was held for the poor of the parish. This was a very severe winter and many endured much suffering. The result of this entertainment was $475 for the poor.

January 30th, a retreat for the married ladies of the parish began. It closed February 2d and Rev. F. S. Henneberry preached the sermon.

March 17th, the feast of St. Patrick, was celebrated with a Solemn High Mass at 9 o'clock and sermon. What was termed at the time "An Unique Entertainment" was held on St. Patrick's evening, in the Peoples' Institute, for the benefit of the parish. All the participants in the evening's entertainment were clerical friends of the pastor.

The great hall was overcrowded and $1,150 was taken in at the door.

Rev. M. J. Dorney lectured. Rev. J. J. Greene was kind enough to make a speech in Irish. The songs and music were rendered in an admirable manner by Fathers Dore, Perry, Nawicka, Callaghan and Mahony.

March 19th, a new statue of St. Joseph was blessed.

March 25th, Rev. J. A. Coughlin came to assist in the parish work.

On March 26th, a three days' retreat for the men of the parish began.

On April 26th, the late Mass was changed from 10:30 to 11 a. m.

April 30th, ground was broken for the new church.

On May 4th the officers of the Young Men's Institute were installed.

June 1st, the anniversary Solemn Requiem High Mass was said for the repose of the soul of Rev. L. Cunningham.

June 19th, First Communion for the children, at Solemn High Mass at 7:30 a. m.

The corner-stone of the new church was put in place, in the presence of a great crowd of people, on the Sunday afternoon of July 26th, by Archbishop Feehan.

The sermon was preached by Very Rev. A. Morrissey, C. S. C., President of Notre Dame University. The banquet for the visiting clergy was served in the class rooms of the school building, which had been most tastefully decorated by the Sisters. The silver trowel which was used in the ceremony, and which had been kindly donated by the W. J. Feeley Company, was won in competition by Miss Mary G. Murphy.

August 17th, open meeting and installation of officers of the L. C. B. A.

A bazaar for the benefit of the new church began October 17th and lasted two weeks; $10,521.19 was realized.

1897.

February 28th, after a simple blessing, the first Mass was said in the new church, by Rev. J. A. Coughlin, assisted by Rev. J. J. McLaughlin as subdeacon and Rev. J. J. Jennings as deacon. Rev. W. L. Kearney was master of ceremonies. Rev. N. J. Mooney, Chancellor, preached the sermon. A chorus of fifty voices added much to the occasion. At the vesper service the Stations of the Cross were erected by a Franciscan Father.

May 16th, the church was dedicated at 11 a. m. by Archbishop Feehan. The Solemn High Mass was sung by Rev. M. J. Fitzsimmons, assisted by Rev. F. S. Henneberry and Rev. E. A. Kelly.

The sermon was delivered by Very Rev. David Fennessy, C. R., President of St. Mary's College, Kentucky. The choirs of St. Charles' and Blessed Sacrament parishes rendered the musical program.

The Most Reverend Archbishop administered Confirmation to a large class at 3 p. m.

March 3d, a four weeks' mission by the Jesuit Fathers, in charge of Father Moeller, S. J., began. The Men's Mission closed March 21st and the Men's Sodality was formed.

On March 22d the first officers of this Sodality were selected.

April 27th, the shrine of St. Anthony was blessed. This was a donation from a young man who was an unknown visitor to the parish. He made the donation in honor of his mother.

June 24th, first public exhibition by the school children took place in the basement hall.

November 14th, the grand Kimball piano won by the Young Ladies' Sodality, in competition with several Sodalities of the city, was christened "Maria Carlotta." Mr. William Dillon acted as sponsor.

July 27th, 28th and 29th, Garden Social by the Young Ladies' Sodality, to defray the expenses for the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes.

RIGHT REV. P. J. MULDOON, D. D.

The entire cost of this work, about $1,500, was borne by this Sodality.

September 7th, school began. During the summer months the old church floor was subdivided into five school rooms, and living rooms for the Sisters. An addition of twelve feet was made to the building and the front faced with brown stone. This improvement and furnishing the new rooms cost about $12,000.

During September, October and November, a school and parish census was taken.

November 3d, the Young Men's Institute had a minstrel entertainment in the basement, for the club's benefit.

On November 7th St. Charles' feast was solemnly celebrated. The sermon was by Rev. F. S. Henneberry.

December 12th, close of married ladies' retreat at 3 p. m. Sermon by Rev. J. Dennison.

On December 8th the retreat for the Young Ladies' Sodality closed.

December 21st, reception was tendered the pastor on his return from Europe, by the parishioners.

The following is from the Chicago Chronicle:

"A royal welcome was extended by his parishioners last night to Rev. P. J. Muldoon, pastor of St. Charles Borromeo's church, Twelfth and Cypress Streets, who returned yesterday from a long trip abroad. St. Charles' Hall, which was transformed into a bower of beauty with holiday greenery and potted plants, was crowded when, at 8 o'clock, Father Muldoon, accompanied by a committee of citizens and a number of clergymen, took his place upon the platform, above which was worked out in letters of fire the word, 'Welcome.' The program, which was mainly musical, was rendered by the children and was peculiarly affecting and pleasing. George T. Trumbull delivered the address of welcome and in the name of the parish presented Father Muldoon a purse containing more than $1,200. Father Muldoon was much affected by the tributes of his flock, and evinced his gratitude in a speech, during the course of which he took occasion to describe some of the places he had visited in Europe. He told of the Passion Play at Oberammergau and of his visit to Rome, where he had an audience with the Sovereign Pontiff."

December 23d, at evening services, the pastor spoke of his trip to Europe and gave the Papal blessing to the congregation.

June 26th, closing of schools with public exhibition.

July 12th, first public announcement that the pastor, Rev. P. J. Muldoon, was appointed Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago and Bishop of Tamasos. At 4 p. m. he received the Bulls of appointment from the hands of Archbishop Feehan, at Feehanville.

July 25th, the pastor was consecrated at the Cathedral at 10 a. m., by Cardinal Martinelli, the Apostolic Delegate, in the presence of a vast concourse of people, about six hundred priests, a large number of Sisters, and many Bishops and Archbishops.

The Chicago Tribune of July 26th speaks of the evening's welcome as follows:

"Bishop Muldoon started home, escorted by 200 members of Catholic societies, shortly before 8 o'clock. He rode in a closed carriage and was accompanied by Father Kearney, Father Barth, and Vicar-General Fitzsimmons. When the Bishop arrived at Ashland and Jackson Boulevards, he was met by a procession which had marched from St. Charles' parish. From that point those in the parade escorted the new Bishop to his home.

"Thousands of persons lined the sidewalk and cheered. At the street intersections it was almost impossible for the escort to clear the way for the party. As the new Bishop arrived in front of his home, a blaze of electric lights flashed out from its front, forming in Latin the words, 'Behold, Our Great Priest.' As the lights flashed the thousands of persons massed around the house set up a cheer which lasted until Bishop Muldoon had stepped from his carriage, when he was showered with floral pieces.

" 'This sincere welcome draws only words of appreciation from me,' spoke Bishop Muldoon, as he faced his friends. 'But tonight the words nearest to my heart are 'Home, Sweet Home.' Be it ever so humble, it will always be dear to me. A far deeper motive than a mere welcome to me personally inspires this tonight. You have a Catholic reverence for the office which I have been called to fill. It shows that when Rome speaks, the spirit of obedience and loyalty is uppermost.' The parish home had been decorated with flowers and flags, and later in the evening a supper was served to intimates of the new Bishop."

July 28th, first Pontifical Mass of Bishop Muldoon. Sermon by Rev. P. J. Mulconry, S. J.

July 31st, the pastor, Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, was appointed Vicar-General of the Archdiocese.

Special music, arranged for the occasion, was sung by a chorus of three hundred voices from the Catholic Order of Foresters' Choral Society, under the direction of Mr. Wm. F. Ryan. Mr. John P. Hopkins presented Bishop Muldoon with a purse of $35,000 on behalf of the clergy and citizens of Chicago. Archbishop Quigley delivered an address and Bishop Muldoon spoke at the close of the meeting.

December 15th, Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon left Chicago by special train, accompanied by two hundred clergymen and about four hundred citizens.

February 27th, Rev. E. J. Fox, formerly of Barrington, Ill., was appointed by Archbishop James E. Quigley to take charge of the parish.

February 27th, parish reception to the new pastor, Father Fox. The hall was crowded with parishioners. Speeches were made by Rev. J. B. Scanlan, Rev. J. A. Dunn, Rev. T. F. Quinn and Rev. P. D. Gill. Mr. Frank T. Nichol on behalf of the people of St. Charles delivered an address of welcome. Mr. Robert Ryan and Mr. James E. O'Brien, trustees of the church, congratulated the new pastor and assured him of the loyalty and affection of his new flock, after which a musical program was rendered, and Father Fox briefly responded, expressing his appreciation of the welcome tendered him by the parish, and stating that this first manifestation of good will and confidence was a source of encouragement and support.

March 17th, stereopticon lecture on Ireland by Miss Vaughn.

April 15th, Rev. T. F. Quinn left to take charge of new parish at Everett, Ill., and Rev. J. A. Hayden was appointed to take his place.

May 9th, three weeks' mission commenced, given by the Augustinian Fathers.

May 23d, First Communion and Confirmation.

May 24th, decoration of the interior of the church completed and Grotto decorated.

July 10th, new marble pulpit finished.

August, three streets surrounding the church property paved.

New cement sidewalks and yard.

November 8th, fall festival opened, at which $7,200 was taken in. St. Charles' Hall decorated.

December 25th, Christmas sermon by Father Gleason, S. J.

1910.

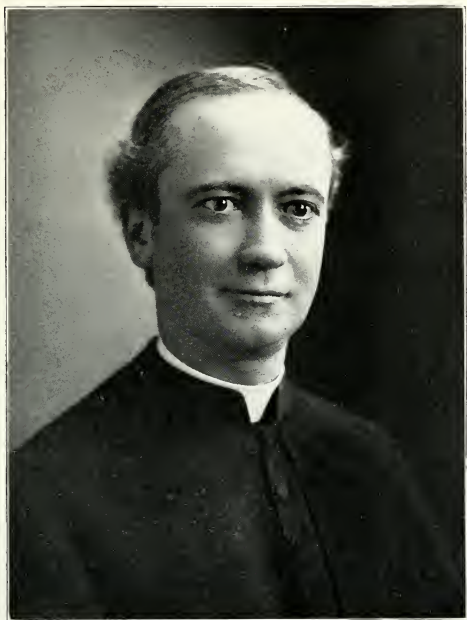

January 27th, illustrated lecture on the Passion Play by Rev. E. J. Fox.

May 26th, First Communion. Solemn High Mass.

June 16th, blessing of new banner and bannerettes and reception into the Married Ladies' Sodality.

June 29th, closing of school. Reception to Bishop Muldoon.

August 6th, picnic given by the Temperance society to the boys of the parish.

REV. E. J. FOX.

Our Parochial Schools.

THE schools of the parish have been, and are, not only our burden, but our pride. It has been with great difficulty that we have kept pace with the ever-increasing number of children. Year after year, a number of school buildings have been erected, and yet the cry is, "More room needed." Great as the task has been, it has been the source of intense satisfaction, for we realize most deeply that religious men and women can be found only where childhood is taught daily the lessons of the Master.

We cannot say too strong words of praise in favor of the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who have endured many hardships in bringing the schools to their present high standard. The following list of Superiors, and the number of eighth grade graduates, each year, may be of interest to many:

Superiors of St. Charles' School, 1886-1910.

Sister Mary Florentina, 1886-1889.

Sister Mary Leander, 1889-1892.

Sister Mary Philippa, 1892-1895.

Sister Mary Vincentia, 1895-1901.

Music Classes in Parochial Schools.

Three experienced teachers give lessons in instrumental music throughout the year. Lessons are given on piano, guitar, mandolin, violin and organ. Special arrangements will be made for those at work who desire to gain musical education.

Note reading and voice culture are part of the regular grammar school course.

The Children's Choir of boys and girls of the school sing Vespers each Sunday evening.

The Boys' Orchestra and Special Choir render the music at the Communion Mass for St. Aloysius' Sodality.

The following young ladies have received teachers' certificates in music:

Miss Marion Gaynor, Miss Adah White, Miss Margaret West.

St. Mary's High School.

St. Mary's High School was opened September 5, 1899, in a rented building at the corner of Cypress and Taylor Streets, with one class of first-year students numbering seventy-two. The following year the present spacious building was erected, but its capacity is still insufficient to accommodate the increasing number of students, the enrollment of the present year being three hundred and seventy. Eight classes have been graduated, that of 1903, numbering eighteen students; that of 1910, forty-six. The Alumnae now has a membership of two hundred and sixty-three. Of these, sixteen have embraced the religious life and nine have entered the married state.

Those of the students who have chosen the teaching profession have passed the Normal Entrance examinations with credit to themselves and to St. Mary's. The school, however, is not exclusively for those preparing to teach—its aim being to fit young women for any sphere in life to which duty may call them. The musical department has kept pace with the progress of the high school. The number of students enrolled each year is constantly increasing. Those who have been graduated from this department and those who have secured teachers' certificates have by their successful teaching, gained for the school an enviable reputation. Piano, Violin, Vocal Music, Sight-Singing, Theory and Harmony are included in the curriculum. Special attention is given to those who wish to prepare themselves for teachers' examinations in Theory and Harmony.

St. Charles' Alumni.

All the graduates of St. Charles' School are members of the alumni. Meetings and entertainments are held from time to time every year—and the organization has succeeded in maintaining a spirit of goodfellowship among the pupils after they have been occupied in the busy world. The present officers are:

Rev. E. J. Fox.....	Spiritual Director
Frank O'Connell	President
Loretta Reeves	Vice-President
Raymond O'Brien	Secretary

Sodalities.

THE HOLY MATERNITY SODALITY.

This sodality was organized under the direction of Rev. P. D. Gill on January 17, 1886. Mrs. Newman was the first Prefect. On January 2, 1887, Father Cunningham became the Director, and Mrs. Donnelly was elected Prefect. In 1896 Rev. J. J. Jennings assumed its direction.

The membership has been increased from fifty members to three hundred and fifty. Father Jennings then being appointed to take charge of the new parish of the Presentation, Rev. P. J. Muldoon became the Director. Through his zeal and energy the membership increased to eight hundred. In July, 1901, the Director having been consecrated bishop, the present Director, Rev. J. B. Scanlan, assumed charge.

The first record on the sodality's obituary is Mrs. Margaret Seery.

The Prefects:

Mrs. Mary Newman.....	1886-1887
Mrs. Catherine Donnelly.....	1887-1898
Mrs. Ellen Martin.....	1898-1900
Mrs. Margaret O'Brien.....	1900-1902
Mrs. Catherine Donohue.....	1902-1904
Mrs. Mary McHale.....	1904-1906
Mrs. Catherine Sullivan.....	1906-1908
Mrs. Mary Corrigan.....	1908-1910

The sodality meets in the church on the first and third Thursdays at 2:30 o'clock. The sodality is divided into guilds.

The present officers are:

Prefect.....	Mrs. Mary Kavanaugh

YOUNG LADIES' SODALITY.

December 4, 1895, a retreat was begun preparatory to the organization of a Young Ladies' Sodality in the parish. On December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, two hundred and ninety-two young ladies made their act of Consecration to the Mother of God and were initiated into the Sodality. Father Muldoon assumed its direction.

January 5, 1896, the first meeting was held in the old church.

March 1st, Miss Mary Brady was elected its first Prefect. Previous to this date it operated under temporary officers.

September 1, 1901, Father Quinn became its Director, and in April, 1909, Father Hayden assumed charge.

The Young Ladies' Sodality has always taken an active part in the decoration of the church. The beautiful marble altar of the Blessed Virgin, and the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes are gifts of this society. The young ladies have charge of the parish library. Twenty-five members comprise the library board. Miss Minnie Kenny is President, Miss Clara Hellman is Secretary.

The Prefects:

CHILDREN OF MARY'S SODALITY.

This society, now in the fifteenth year of its existence, has a very large enrollment. Its members include all the girls of the parish who have made their First Holy Communion. Its primary objects are to have the members receive Holy Communion once a month in a body, to honor and love Mary, the Mother of God, to imitate her virtues and by word and example encourage one another to follow in Mary's footsteps.

The Children of Mary meet every second and fourth Sunday of each month to sing the praises of their Patroness, recite the little Office, and listen to the conference given by their Father Director.

The history of this sodality dates back to December, 1895, when in response to the call of Rev. P. J. Muldoon, two hundred children were received into the society, which now numbers five hundred.

Rev. W. L. Kearney was spiritual director during 1896 and 1897, and was succeeded by Rev. J. B. Scanlan, whose indefatigable zeal has made the sodality one of the largest and best in Chicago.

Miss Agnes Carney (now Mrs. Nichol) was the first Prefect. Her successors have been Mabel Moran, Margaret O'Brien, Frances O'Brien, Frances McMahon, Mary O'Brien, Frances Martin, Loretta Reeves.

During these few years, ten members have given their lives to the service of Mary. Out of these ten, three were officers of the present year.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the loss of seven members who in their early youth were taken from our midst by the Angel of Death.

The organists have been Ethel McIntyre, Agnes McDermott, and Loretta Reeves.

The officers of the present year are:

Prefect	Mary Guiry
First Assistant.....	Minnie Rooney
Second Assistant.....	Loretta O'Brien
Secretary	May Welsh
Organist	Adah White
Sacristan	Zoe Pepin

There are twenty-three guilds in this organization, each under the supervision of a Consultor and the protection of a Saint.

The Consultors of these guilds are as follows:

Josephine Ogden	Nellie McElin
Zoe Pepin	Vera Mattern
Marie Olsen	Marie Golden
Nellie Gibbins	May Cunningham
Lillian O'Connell	Geraldine Hogan
Edna Welsh	Esther Seery
Loretta Guiry	Florence Ryan
Marie Sullivan	Agatha Nash
Jennie Sweeney	Adah White

HOLY NAME SOCIETY.

This sodality is for all the men of the parish, both married and unmarried. The members make a special effort to honor the Holy Name of Jesus, and promise to avoid and prevent, as far as possible, cursing and swearing. This sodality meets the Monday after the second Sunday of each month, at 8 o'clock p. m. The services consist of Rosary, instruction and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Communion is second Sunday of each month at 7 o'clock Mass.

The Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon directed the spiritual affairs of the sodality from its organization up to the time of his consecration. The Rev. W. L. Kearney then became spiritual director, and continued in that capacity up to the time of his appointment as pastor of the newly created parish of the Most Precious Blood, which occurred in June, 1907. Fr. Kearney was succeeded by the Rev. J. A. Dunn, who is at present spiritual director, and we trust will continue to be for many years to come.

Mr. Frank T. Nichol was chosen president of the sodality at its organization and has been re-elected several times, and at the last election held in April, 1910, as a fitting tribute to his efficient leadership, he was again unanimously elected.

Mr. Joseph E. Murphy was the first secretary and held that office until 1905. In December, 1905, Mr. John W. Reeves was elected secretary. His term of office extended from that time up to April, 1910, when a change of residence necessitated his retirement. The present secretary, Mr. James Cronin, was elected in April, 1910, and owing to his wide experience in society affairs, great things are expected under his supervision.

ST. ALOYSIUS' SODALITY.

All of the boys of the parish who are not old enough to enter the Holy Name sodality are members of this sodality. They receive Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass on the second Sunday, and meet the Monday after the second Sunday at 3:30 p. m.

Officers—1903 and 1904.

Spiritual Director.....	Rev. T. F. Quinn

Treasurer.....	F. Weiss

REV. J. A. HAYDEN.

In November, 1906, on account of rapid increase in membership, the sodality was growing too large to be handled by one set of officers, and it was deemed advisable by our Spiritual Director to make two divisions of the sodality. First, one Senior division, comprising those who had finished school; and second, one Junior division, consisting of those boys still in school.

Officers of Senior Division.

Spiritual Director.....Rev. T. F. Quinn
 Prefect.....Ralph Sullivan
 Assistant Prefect.....Jos. McDonald
 Secretary.....R. J. Flannigan
 Treasurer.....Paul Sullivan
 Sergeant-at-Arms.....Fred Weiss

Officers of Junior Division.

Spiritual Director.....Rev. T. F. Quinn
 Prefect.....J. A. Carroll
 First Assistant Prefect.....Wm. O'Brien
 Second Assistant Prefect.....T. P. Carey
 Third Assistant Prefect.....T. McElin

In September, 1907, when Father Dunn was assigned to this parish, he was immediately appointed Spiritual Director of the sodality.

In May 1909, the Senior Division was taken into the Holy Name Society, and done away with, leaving one division of the St. Aloysius Sodality.

The present officers of the sodality are:

Spiritual Director.....Rev. J. A. Dunn
 Prefect.....George Morris
 Assistant Prefect.....Wm. Ridge
 Second Assistant Prefect.....George Clark
 Third Assistant Prefect.....Frank Genty

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL.

Meeting every Tuesday at 8 p. m. in library.

This society was organized December 15, 1901, at the parochial residence in response to a call issued by the then Rev. P. J. Muldoon, with a membership of twelve. Of the twelve charter members, three are still active in the works of the society. The first president, Mr. Frank T. Nichol, still presides.

The purpose of the society is the personal sanctification of its members by the performance of acts of charity. Its scope is best shown by the words of its rule that "No work of charity is foreign to the society." The bulk of its work, of course, consists in the personal visitation of the poor in their homes. During the first year of its existence the conference expended $430.00 in works of charity, and during the year 1909 its expenditures amounted to $753.00.

A special feature of the conference work has always been its care of the children. This work has developed so largely of late that a juvenile committee of two members now devotes its entire time to looking after the interests of any of the children of the parish who need their attention. Several of the members also take a very active part in hospital and prison visiting.

The Conference has never had to refuse any worthy call for relief, although it has often been short of funds. Its chief source of income is its annual entertainment. The Rev. Pastor also turns over to it the contributions to the church Poor Box. This amounted to about $140.00 during the year 1909, and the active members contributed about an equal amount to the collection at its weekly meetings.

The conference is fortunate in having the services of Drs. Moore, H. J. Way, E. J. O'Brien and A. C. Kubicek.

It receives honorary members, who contribute a fixed sum annually.

The present officers are:

Spiritual Director, Rev. J. A. Dunn, Twelfth and Cypress Sts.

President, Frank T. Nichol, 803 Oakley Boulevard.

Vice-President, Charles Ogden, 1116 S. Leavitt Street.

Secretary, Gerald C. Nichol, 4649 Jackson Boulevard.

Treasurer, John W. Reeve, 311 S. Campbell Avenue.

Librarian, Charles Albert, 2738 S. Hamlin Avenue.

Wardrobe Keeper, E. George Green, 2414 Flournoy Street.

ST. CHARLES' TOTAL ABSTINENCE SOCIETY.

The St. Charles Total Abstinence Society was organized in the spring of 1899, by the Rev. P. J. Muldoon. Its object is the suppression of the vice of intemperance and the fostering of the virtues which uplift the mind of man to nobler aspirations. Mr. M. J. McHale was elected president pro tem., and was succeeded after a short time by Mr. W. F. Kelly. He was succeeded in 1901 by Mr. Christopher O'Brien, who for two years fought and overcame the obstacles which threaten the success of every new organization, and who turned over to his successor, Mr. D. P. Carey, the reins of government of a strong and growing society. Mr. Carey was also re-elected to a second term, and to his efforts is due much of the society's later success. Mr. Carey having removed to Rochester, N. Y., Mr. J. T. Lillis was elected to fill the unexpired term.

In 1901, Rev. Father Muldoon having been raised to the episcopal office, Rev. T. F. Quinn was appointed Spiritual Director. Following in the footsteps of his predecessor, Father Quinn, through his zeal and tireless energy, proved himself a true friend to the cause. Since its inception, competent officers, with the assistance of loyal, ambitious members, have brought the society to the position it occupies today—that of one of the most active in the state.

In April, 1909, Father Hayden became Director, and Mr. Chas. V. Ogden succeeded Mr. Lillis as President.

JAMES E. O'BRIEN,
MEMBER CHURCH COMMITTEE.

An annual event of the temperance society is the boys' picnic. The marble altar rail and pulpit are gifts of the society.

LEAGUE OF THE SACRED HEART.

In this pious association there are 1,500 members, under the direction of about one hundred promoters.

The pious exercises in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus are held each first Friday at 8 p. m.

The marble statue of the Sacred Heart was donated by the league.

The officers are:

Spiritual Director.....Rev. J. A. Hayden
President.....Mrs. Catherine Donnelly
Treasurer.....Miss Anna Ronan
Secretary.....Miss Anna Martell

First Altar Boys.

John Carroll, Edward Dwyer, Maurice Buckley, William Dermody, J. A. Gannon, James Clancy.

Our Ushers.

The parish is under deep obligation to the ushers, past and present, who have, at much sacrifice, Sunday after Sunday attended to the seating of the congregation. Their courtesy, punctuality, and labor for the congregation merits this small mark of appreciation.

The following gentlemen have been ushers:

James Clancy, John Birmingham, James Butler, David Joyce, John Gannon, Peter Hughes, Joseph Ogden, Frank McIntyre, Richard Walsh, J. W. Reeves.

The present ushers are:

Martin Hayes, William Myron, Timothy O'Donnell, Harry Ward, Sylvester O'Donohue.

Church Donations.

The completion of the church reveals some of the finest stained glass windows in Chicago, donated by our people, and we beg to call attention to the location of those windows. In the sanctuary, encircling the spire of the main altar, we have represented the five sorrowful mysteries of the Rosary. On the west side—directly over St. Ann's shrine—we have, first, the Agony in the Garden, in memory of M. D. McCabe, donated by Mrs. McCabe; second, the Scourging at the Pillar, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell; third, in the center of sanctuary, The Crowning with Thorns, in memory of John P. Kettles, donated by Mrs. Kettles; fourth, east side, The Carrying of the Cross, gift of Miss C. Malone; fifth, The Crucifixion, donated by Mrs. Moisand.

Over St. Joseph's altar, east side, begin the Glorious Mysteries :

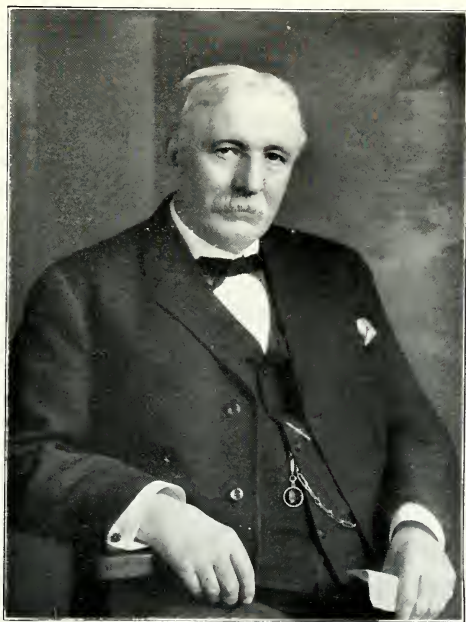

1. The Resurrection—In memory of Mrs. Elizabeth Rowan, donated by Mr. M. Rowan.
2. (Opposite in transept.) The Ascension—In memory of Robert M. Nichol, donated by Mr. F. T. Nichol.
3. The Descent of the Holy Ghost. (First window from sanctuary in center aisle, east side.) Donated by Miss Carrie E. Graves.
4. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary—In memory of Jas. Clancy, donated by Mrs. Clancy.
5. The Coronation of the Blessed Virgin Mary—In memory of Mrs. Mary McIntyre, donated by Mr. F. McIntyre.
6. East, near choir, Queen of the Rosary—In memory of Patrick and Ann Redmond, donated by the Redmond family.

On west side of church, beginning at the choir, we have :

1. The Giving of the Rosary by the Blessed Virgin to St. Dominic—In memory of Isaac Commerford, donated by Mrs. Commerford.

Then follow the Joyful Mysteries :

1. The Annunciation—In memory of James E. and Philip Donnelly, donated by Mrs. C. Donnelly.
2. The Visitation—In memory of George E. Stuckel, donated by Mrs. Stuckel.
3. The Nativity of Our Lord—In memory of Mrs. Catherine Cusack, donated by Mr. P. Cusack.
4. In transept, south end west side, The Presentation—In memory of Henry Dermody, donated by Mrs. Dermody.
5. In transept, north end west side, over Blessed Virgin's altar, The Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple—In memory of James and Ann Gubbins, donated by Mr. W. F. Gubbins.

ROBERT RYAN.
MEMBER CHURCH COMMITTEE.

The window of St. Peter, east side of church, near altar railing, was donated by Mr. Jas. Hogan in memory of John P. Dougherty.

St. Paul's window, east side, donated by Mrs. Ryan in memory of Patrick J. Ryan.

Rose window, in front of church, donated by Mrs. Todd in memory of Mrs. Newman.

Large window, east side transept, representing scenes from the life of St. Charles, was donated by Rt. Rev. Bishop Muldoon in memory of the Rev. J. A. Coughlin.

Large window, west side transept, scenes from life of St. Charles, donated by Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, D. D., in memory of Mrs. Bridget Naylor.

The Children of Mary Sodality window is placed in the center of the transept and is a reproduction of the famous "Hoffman's" Agony in the Garden.

The large crucifix for the Blessed Sacrament altar, given by a friend.

Two large candlesticks for the main altar, donated by Mr. Walter Redmond in memory of his wife, Annie McGuire Redmond.

The marble statue of St. Joseph was donated by Mr. Robert Ryan and Miss Ryan.

Christ and Children, gift of Holy Name Society.
Sacred Heart, gift of League of the Sacred Heart.
The Resurrection, gift of Catholic Order of Foresters.

St. Charles Choir.

St. Charles' choir has been, during the twenty-five years of its existence, one of the most active and progressive organizations in the parish. Starting under the direction of Miss Mary Doran in 1885 with a small membership, it undertook some very pretentious work, and attracted voices of unusual sweetness to its ranks.

After two years of most satisfactory service, the choir came under the leadership of Mr. P. Torney, whose daughter Edna, then a young pupil of the parochial school, presided at the organ. In a few years Miss Torney resigned to accept the organ at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Moore successively took charge of the choir, which consisted of twenty singers—just enough to occupy the small platform which served for so many years as the choir-loft in the building which is now the parochial school.

In 1894 the choir direction was given by Rev. Fr. Gill to Miss May Smith, now Mrs. Wm. F. Ryan, who has continued to preside as organist and choir director ever since. As soon as the new church was proposed, a large chorus of seventy-five voices was organized to prepare for the dedication, and since that time, although old members have resigned after years of service, and pleasure, new recruits have gladly taken their places, so that the work of the choir has been of the highest excellence at all times, and an orchestra was needed on all important feasts to support the voices.

At last a large organ was a necessity, and a Lyon & Healy two-manual was installed at a Sacred Concert given February 13, 1901. Very Rev. John Cavanagh delivered the address. Mr. Edward B. Scheve gave an organ recital, and the program presented by the choir was very elaborate. The opening chorus "Exulta Sion" was written for this occasion, and dedicated to the choir by Mr. Eustacio Rosales—who assisted in its first performance.

HOUSE IN WHICH FIRST MASS WAS SAID.

During all these years it has been the custom to render a new Mass for Christmas Day, and Easter Sunday, so that a large repertoire of standard Masses has been learned, among which may be mentioned the works of Gounod, Weber, Haydn, Giorza, Marzo, Farmer, Millard, Leonard, Ledesco and Gregorian Masses.

The activity of the choir has not all been directed to music, for the many social affairs, such as picnics, excursions, theatres, parties and house gatherings, have been events of great enjoyment and enthusiasm. Several operas and minstrel performances have been managed and directed for charitable purposes in this and neighboring parishes by Mr. Wm. F. Ryan, and a large sum of money thus earned while the young people enjoyed the association and company of Catholic friends.

Among those who deserve particular mention for long and valuable services rendered gratuitously for the services in St. Charles' Church are Mrs. Rose Lutiger-Gannon, now the foremost contralto in this country, who started at twelve years of age to sing the praises of God in this choir, and who, though receiving high remuneration elsewhere during the year, has sung with the choir every Christmas since.

Mrs. Mary Corrigan has been a regular and faithful member for twenty years; Mr. Walter Searle, ten years as tenor soloist; Mr. Geo. Searle, seven years; Mrs. James Lennon, soprano soloist ten years; Mr. Simon Greene, now of Rockford, bass soloist eight years; Miss Tessie Sloan, contralto, now soloist of St. Patrick's Church. Mme. Proulx, one of the finest sopranos heard in Chicago churches, has always responded on special occasions. Mrs. L. A. Booth, now organist of Precious Blood Church, soprano soloist for several years, and Miss Alice Genevieve Smith, the well-known harpist, have assisted in the several programs.

In the passing years the choir of St. Charles' Church has had in its membership many singers who, beginning as volunteers, have attained positions of merit in the musical world. While many of others equally endowed have contented themselves with serving the choir in an honorary capacity, ever ready to respond to a call for special duty. The list of those who have come and gone during the twenty-five years, and those that still continue their membership in the choir would be a large one if appended here. Of the many faithful attendants of the choir for a number of years, and at present on the roster, may be mentioned Mrs. Edw. Neil, Miss Katherine Gordon and Miss Maud Gubbins, as well as those whose names will be found on the program to be rendered on the day of the Jubilee celebration.

On December 5, 1908, the beautiful marble altars were blessed by His Grace, Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, and the choir rendered a very effective musical program at the Pontifical Mass.

Looking back over the twenty-five years just closed, we have every reason to be proud of St. Charles' choir, its musical work has been a very high order of excellence, its social affairs pleasant, a credit to St. Charles' Church for loyal devotion, unflagging interest and harmonious co-operation.

That the good work may continue, and that God may bless each and every one who has voluntarily assisted in beautifying His Holy service is the devout prayer of a grateful communicant.

The musical program at the Pontifical High Mass, celebrating the Silver Jubilee of St. Charles' Church will be rendered by the regular choir of sixty voices, under the direction of the organist, Mrs. Wm. F. Ryan, assisted by a surpliced choir of seventy-five voices.

Evening Choir Service.

Miss Ethel McIntyre is organist and leader. This choir chants all the evening services.

Married Ladies' Choir.

Mrs. Elizabeth Patton is organist. The choir is composed of members of the Married Ladies' Sodality, who render the music at all meetings and entertainments.

Young Ladies' Choir.

Miss Agnes McDermott is organist, and the choir sings on all sodality occasions.

The Girls' Choir.

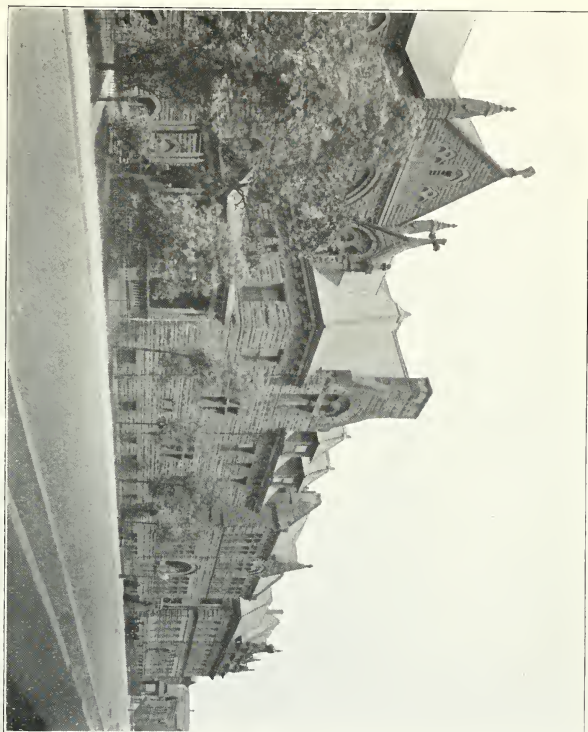

Miss Adah White is organist. This choir is composed of young girls, who sing hymns appropriate for the children's meetings.

The Boys' Choir.

Miss Marion Gaynor is organist. An orchestra composed of boys accompanies this choir.

The Children's Choir.

Miss Marion Gaynor is organist. All the children of the parish sing the hymns at the Children's Mass on Sunday morning.

RESIDENCE, SCHOOL, AND CONVENT.

St. Charles Borromeo.

St. Charles Borromeo, son of Gilbert Borromeo, Count of Arona, and Margaret of Medicis, and nephew of Pope Pius IV., was born on the 2nd of October, 1538, in the castle of Arona, fourteen miles from Milan. He studied at the University of Paris where he took the degree of Doctor of Laws in 1559. In 1560 he was selected as Bishop of Milan.

St. Charles died November 4th, 1584, at the age of forty-six years, and was solemnly canonized by Pope Paul V. in 1610. His remains lie in a beautiful chapel under the cupola of the great Milan Cathedral, where a great number of lamps are kept burning night and day.

This year being the centenary of the great Reformer's canonization, our Holy Father, Pope Pius X., has issued an encyclical on the occasion. After relating the wonderful successful events in the life of the Saint, and the necessity of similar work at the present time, the Holy Father says: "In this respect, too, it is given to us to admire the splendid example set by St. Charles, and to derive from it each according to his own condition matter for imitation and comfort. For although his singular virtue, his marvelous activity and his abundant charity made him worthy of so much respect, yet even he was not exempt from the law.

"All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. Thus the very fact that he led a very austere life, that he always stood up for righteousness and honesty, that he was an incorruptible defender of law and justice, brought upon him the hostility of powerful men, and the trickeries of diplomats caused him later to be distrusted by the nobility, the clergy and the people, and eventually drew upon him the deadly hatred of the wicked so that his very life was sought. Yet, though of a mild and gentle disposition, he held out against all this with invincible courage, mindful of the words of Christ, 'Give unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's.' And of the declaration of the Apostles, 'It is better to obey God rather than men,' he became a supreme benefactor not only of the cause of religion but of civil society itself which, paying the penalty of its foolish prudence and almost overwhelmed by the storms of sedition which itself had raised, was rushing up certain destruction."

Societies.

ST. CHARLES BORROMEO COURT, No. 59, C. O. F.

The Catholic Order of Foresters was organized in May, 1883, and four years later, on May 29, 1887, St. Charles Borromeo Court, No. 59, was organized, and being the first court in the parish, was named after the parish.

It was organized by D. H. C. R. James C. Graham, with twenty members, and installed by the High Chief Ranger, John F. Scanlan, and the members of the Court elected their distinguished Brother, John Devlin, as their first Chief Ranger, under whose direction the Court prospered the first year of its existence.

Re-election was refused by Brother Devlin and Thomas McEnery, the present State Chief Ranger of Illinois, was chosen, and presided over the Court for two years; then Brother C. E. Hildreth presided over the destiny of the Court for three years; Brother George Trumbull had the honor of being the executive officer for two years; our departed and beloved Brother, P. H. Cominsky, took care of the Court's interest as its executive officer for a year; Brother Hildreth was then returned and kept in office as Chief Ranger for five years; again, Brother Trumbull was recalled and placed over the Court for a year; again Brother Hildreth was forced to take up the work of Chief Ranger, and when Brother Hildreth refused to serve longer, our worthy Brother James O'Connell was selected.

Present officers:

Chief Ranger.....	C. E. Hildreth
Past Chief Ranger.....	B. W. Brady
Vice-Chief Ranger.....	J. F. Joyce
Treasurer	Kyran Phelan

WASHINGTON COURT No. 286, C. O. F.

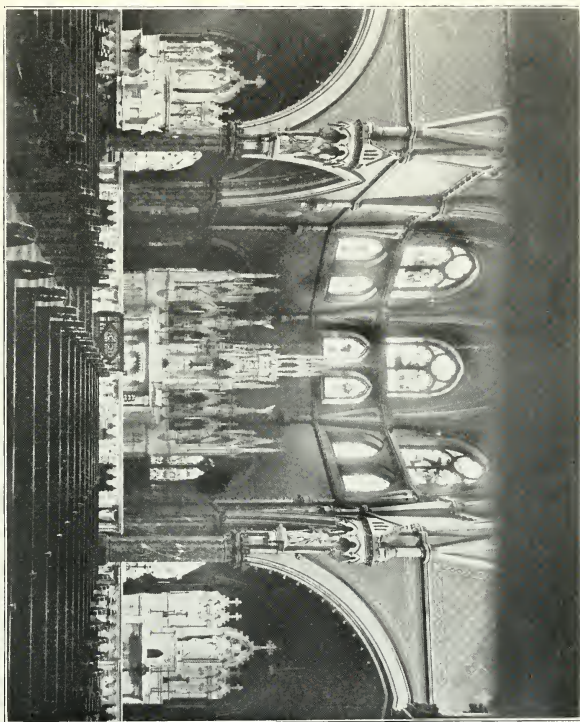

Eighteen years ago there was but one court of the Catholic Order of Foresters in this parish. Believing that the institution of another court would redound to the interest of Forestry and the good of the parish, Rev. Lawrence Cunningham set about the formation of a new court. To this Washington Court owes its origin.

Of the original twenty-eight charter members, seventeen are with us today. Like every new undertaking that achieves success, there were many ups and downs, many trials, sacrifices and anxieties.

One hundred and fifty-eight names are now enrolled on the roster of the court, and at present writing many applications are pending.

The court has always kept before it the true end and purpose of Forestry—the protection of the widow and orphan—and while economy in the expenditure of money has always been its watchword, aid has been given with generous hand to such members as fell sick or met with reverses.

We are still a young court; young in years and young in membership, the average age being thirty years.

INTERIOR OF CHURCH.

Not content with the payment of money to the beneficiaries of our deceased brothers, or to those whom misfortune strikes during lifetime, the court once every quarter has a high mass offered for the repose of its departed, and for the spiritual and temporal welfare of its living members.

Our membership roll is ready to receive at any time the name of any practical Catholic man between the ages of eighteen and forty-five. Any of the following officers will gladly furnish any information to those seeking fraternal insurance :

Rev. E. J. Fox.....	Chaplain
John Birmingham.....	Chief Ranger
P. J. Hanigan.....	Vice-Chief Ranger
Chas. O'Meara.....	Past Chief Ranger

JOAN OF ARC COURT, No. 20, W. C. O. F.

This Court was the first to be organized in the parish and always has it been an active and progressive one.

Mrs. Catherine Hughes, High Secretary of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters, was commissioned in May, 1894, to organize a Court of the Order in St. Charles Borromeo parish. With the assistance of Mrs. Catherine Donnelly, the requisite number was secured, and on June 19, 1894, the Court was instituted by Elizabeth Rogers, High Chief Ranger.

The officers elected were: Rev. P. D. Gill, Chaplain; Mrs. Donnelly, Chief Ranger; Mrs. Hamer, Vice-Chief Ranger; Miss Walsh, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Dawson, Financial Secretary; Mrs. O'Neil, Treasurer; Dr. Reynolds, Medical Examiner; Mesdames Lonregan, Hughes and McCabe, Trustees.

In 1895 Mrs. Catherine Hughes, High Secretary, was elected Chief Ranger, which position she held for three years. Since then the chair has been occupied by Mesdames Martin, Hildreth, Croak, Horen and Miss Elizabeth Connelly.

The By-Laws of the Court provide for the payment of twenty-five dollars to the family of a deceased member immediately after the officers have been notified of the death.

Joan of Arc Court numbers one hundred and seventy-seven. Many of these are among the oldest residents in the parish.

The Court has always taken an active part in parish work, and, in fact, in all good work, when called upon to do so.

The condition of the treasury at all times places the Court in the front rank of the Order, from a financial standpoint, and this statement may be verified by reference to the biennial reports of the High Court.

The finances at present are under the management of Mrs. Corrigan, Financial Secretary, and Mrs. Long, Treasurer. Their books and vouchers are under the supervision of an auditing committee composed of Mesdames Murray, De Long and Shory.

The Corn Exchange National Bank is depository for the funds. All bills, no matter how trivial, are paid by check.

Information for membership may be obtained by addressing a letter of inquiry to Mrs. Ellen Martin, 3812 Harvard Street, Recording Secretary.

The Court meets the first and third Tuesdays in Morrison's Hall, corner of Robey and Taylor Streets.

The present officers are:

ST. CAMILLUS' COURT, No. 303, W. C. O. F.

This Court was organized by Miss Teresa M. Murphy and instituted November 3, 1898, by Mrs. E. Rogers, H. C. R.

The Court was especially favored in having for its Chaplain Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, and under his wise guidance attained great success in both business and social affairs.

Among noticeable social events have been a colonial party, given at the West Chicago Club House, a May party at Illinois Hall, at which one of the unique features was a Maypole dance, participated in by members of the Court, and a reception and euchre, at the West Chicago Club House.

Upon the elevation of their beloved Chaplain to the Episcopacy, the members of the Court, on September 11, 1901, tendered him a reception, the first given by any Forester Court, which was a pronounced success.

BLESSED VIRGIN'S ALTAR.

The last social event of prominence was a "Welcome Home," given the Chief Ranger, Miss Teresa M. Murphy, after her return from the Detroit convention, where she had been elected High Vice Chief Ranger of the W. C. O. F.

On this occasion a banquet was served, at which Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon graced the head of the table, and Father Charles Quinn acted as toastmaster. Among other guests were Revs. P. J. O'Callaghan and J. Dorney and prominent Foresters from Detroit, Denver, Portland and other cities of the U. S., as well as delegates from various Courts of Chicago.

These guests assembled to offer their congratulations to the Court for the honor conferred on it through the election of its Chief Ranger to the second highest office in an order which numbers nearly seventy thousand Catholic women.

The present officers are:

Chief Ranger.....Miss Teresa M. Murphy
 Vice-Chief Ranger.....Mrs. Mary Kavanaugh
 Recording Secretary.....Miss Mary Boland
 Financial Secretary....Mrs. Frances McGreevy
 TreasurerMrs. Serena H. Hayes
